FILE-OF-FACTS

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

IT'S SUMMERTIME, AND YOU'VE GOT PLACES TO GO AND PEOPLE TO SEE. HERE ARE SOME OF THE SEASON'S TO-DIE-FOR DESTINATIONS, AND OF COURSE, OBJECTS OF DESIRE.
— SHANNON BOWEN

The buzzed-about Huntley Santa Monica Beach is right in our backyard, but it feels like a world away. Thomas Schoos is responsible for its elegant, eclectic, and appropriately beachy design (reach out and touch the white-on-white “piranha wall”—we promise it won’t bite—and note the chocolate-brown stingray skin at the reception desk). Each of the hotel’s 209 guest rooms enjoys a gasp-worthy view of the Santa Monica oceanfront, along with creature comforts like 300-thread-count Matteo linens and Gilchrist & Soames toiletries. But before you venture out of the hotel, venture up: Ride the glass elevator along the building’s façade to the hotel’s crown jewel, the Penthouse restaurant, bar, and lounge, for a world-class meal against the blue backdrop of the Pacific. 1111 2nd St, Santa Monica, 310-394-5454, thehuntleyhotel.com
